

22nd-23rd March 2012 at The Palace Hotel Sliema.

The key speakers were Dott. Giovanni Manco and Dott. Stefano Mugnoz. The main objectives of the event rotated around the energy policy focuses on renewable energy sources, reduction of greenhouse gas emissions, energy efficiency, social and employment issues in the redistribution of energy resources; better information and greater choice for consumers and education and training needs for the carbon-free energy society

During this seminar Jesmond Xuereb, the Director of MIEMA, explained the aims and objectives of Enerscapes. The highlights of his presentations consisted of the strategy and the results obtained during this project. This was followed by a discussion about the opportunities of combining landscape and renewable energy sources in Malta while making reference to the present economic situation.